To Our Fellow Parishioners

A "Remembrance Stone" memorial in honor of all avalanche victims in the Lake Louise area is being donated to St. Mary's and is to be installed on the grounds of St. Mary's church. The top of 'Remembrance Stone' will be green-bluish pyramid-shaped granite polished on all sides. The idea is to make it resemble a tall pine tree, so prominent in the area. The pedestal will be grey granite, unpolished except on top and in the inscription area.

Below is a pencil drawing of the memorial with pictures of the granite samples, and dimensions. Approx 6' tall and 3' wide, but could be changed.

The proposed inscription will say:
 "TO ALL WHOSE LIVES WERE CUT SHORT BY AVALANCHE..."

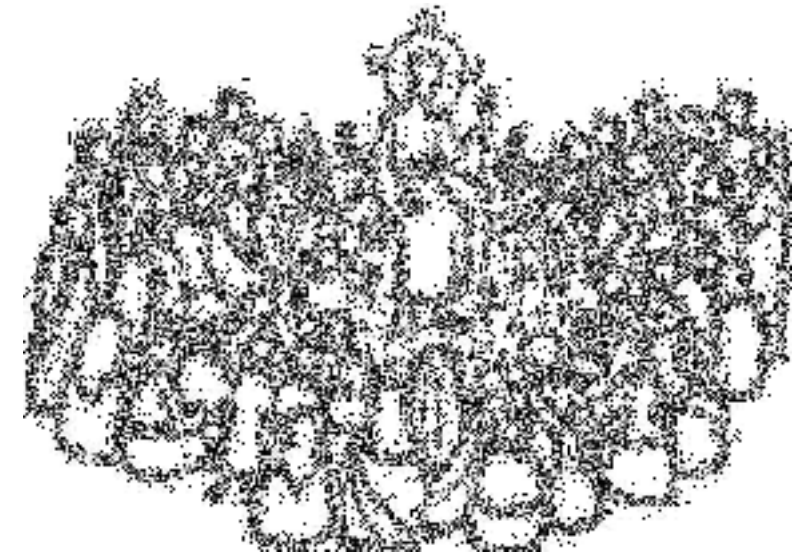

In smaller letters below:
 "This Remembrance Stone was donated by MGH memorial fund in honor of Victor D. Fedorov, MD, PhD a brilliant scientist, a caring doctor, an amazing friend..."
